

Books Belong Everywhere

Exercise your right to read by creating your very own book! Once you've finished thinking of a title, grab a pencil and start sketching your cover. Color in your book, and remember to ROAR for reading!

A book cover usually has:

- A title
- An author and illustrator
- And cover artwork!

Ext-Roar-Dinary Bookmarks!

With an adult's help, cut out the bookmarks below. Then, fold in half along the middle line and glue or tape the blank sides together. Now, you have your very own bookmarks!

How Can You ROAR?

RECOGNIZE that there have been book bans and censorship in your school or town library.

ORGANIZE with other students, caregivers, and educators who understand that banning books is not the answer to any problem.

ACT. Write letters to your school board or mayor. Attend school board meetings with your caregiver, and ask that books not be banned.

RESPECT everyone's right to read what interests them.

For more information, visit the American Library Association's website (ALA.org) and BannedBooksWeek.org.

Hear My ROAR!

Just like Julius, let everyone see (and hear!) your ROAR by pledging to stand up against book banning.

ROAR FOR READING PLEDGE

With this pledge,
I promise to ROAR against book banning!
